

ASKED HER WITH HANDS TO WED, SHE REPLIED 'YES' IN GERMAN

Doughboy Wins Teuton Bride
He Met While Billed in Her
Father's Home on Rhine.

Although Everett C. Haughn, who went through many battles with the Rainbow Division, was disappointed when the armistice was signed, he admitted to-day that after all it was a good thing, for through the cessation of hostilities he was sent into Germany with the Army of Occupation and won a German girl for his bride. She was Miss Elsie Bauer of Unkelbach, a small town on the Rhine. To-day she became Mrs. Haughn. The couple will live in Columbus, O.

"I was billed early in 1919 in a house at Unkelbach," Haughn said to-day. "The German who owned the house had a daughter and I liked her right away. I didn't speak German and she couldn't speak English very well. But she understood something when I spoke with my hands, like I saw the French do, and in German she told me she'd marry me. I studied English when I learned I was to become an American." The bride said, and spent much time with friends who had lived in America.

Haughn met his bride yesterday at

ELIZABETH HAUGHN

Ellis Island, but they had to wait until to-day to get a license. Miss Bauer went to the Travelers' Aid Society home at No. 465 Lexington Avenue. Deputy City Clerk J. J. McCormick performed the ceremony in the Municipal Building.

FAILS TO KEEP DATE TO WED; ARRESTED

Girl Says Fiance Kept $800 She
Gave Him to Furnish a
Honeymoon Home.

Miss Lillian Tien, twenty-four, No. 4401 Fourth Avenue, Brooklyn, told Magistrate Dale this morning in the Fifth Avenue Police Court of the same borough, that she and said Chamandy, twenty-four, who told her he was an interne at Roosevelt Hospital, were to have been married last Thursday night, but that said Chamandy failed to show up.

Chamandy was in court charged with grand larceny. She declared that when he took his last farewell a week ago he took also her necklace worth $60 and her diamond lavalliere, valued at $225. On June 9, she said, she gave her fiance $300 and on June 21 she handed him $500 more, with which he promised to furnish a flat for their honeymoon and fit up an office for himself against the time when he should become a full fledged M. D.

When Chamandy failed to show up on Thursday night Miss Tien said she tried to get him by telephone at the Roosevelt Hospital and was told that he was not known there. He was arrested last night at his home, No. 18 Strong Place, Brooklyn. Chamandy pleaded not guilty and was held for examination on Sept. 6, with bail fixed at $2,000.

CHAMPION BOY SLEEPER ARROUSED; GOES TO COURT

Found at Grand Central, Finishes
Slumber at Police Station.

On a technical charge of juvenile delinquency, James Piscitello, ten, No. 527 East 13th Street, was arraigned to-day in the Children's Court. Jimmy is by way of being the city's champion sleeper. Patrolman Coyne of the East 13th Street station found him early this morning sleeping on a bench in Grand Central Terminal. Unable to shake him into wakefulness, Coyne took him in a taxi to the station house, where Dr. Paul of Flower Hospital aroused him after working on him some time.

The boy remained awake only long enough, however, to give his name and to say that he ran away from home Saturday, and that he had neither eaten nor slept until Sunday night.

"That's all, lemme sleep," said Jimmy, closing his eyes. A minute later he was again in dreamland on a table in the station and a kind policeman threw his coat over him. Later he was with difficulty awakened again to go to court, where his parents had been notified to meet him.

CHASE AFTER HOLD-UP MEN EXCITES 125TH ST. CROWD

Crowded 125th Street, between Lexington and Park Avenue, was thrown into confusion at 9 o'clock to-day, when Policeman Gerstenorn, with a revolver constantly ready out fearing to shoot, chased and caught Willie Jones, a negro, of No. 121 West 114th Street.

Jones was identified, the police said, by Harry Evans, a clothier, of No. 105 East 125th Street, as one of the two men who examined several suits and then attempted to make him put up his hands. Evans fought them. A revolver shot was fired at him and he was knocked down and badly cut with a black knife. One of his associates escaped with a $10 bill snatched from the cash drawer.

Chamandy was in court charged with grand larceny. She declared that when he took his last farewell a week ago he took also her necklace worth $60 and her diamond lavalliere, valued at $225. On June 9, she said, she gave her fiance $300 and on June 21 she handed him $500 more, with which he promised to furnish a flat for their honeymoon and fit up an office for himself against the time when he should become a full fledged M. Pretty Fall Frocks at $22.50

For young girls of 10 to 16

Velveteen combined with wool jersey has been charmingly used in fashioning two very smart frocks for the young girl.

In one model the becoming overblouse is entirely of velveteen in a color that harmonizes with that of the pleated jersey skirt. A dainty little vestee and cuffs of natural color pongee finish the frock.

The other model has been developed with sleeveless overblouse of velveteen which is to be worn over a pongee waist. This frock is doubly attractive in that the pleated jersey skirt may be unbuttoned from the waist and worn separately with a middie blouse.

...Silks---Extraordinary...

10,000 yards of 39-inch
Satin Charmeuse at $2.50

Same grade in stock now at $3.85 a yard

It has been many a long month—years in fact—since we have had charmeuse of this grade at a price so low as $2.50 a yard.

It is closely woven—as you will see when you hold it to the light. It is entirely free from dressing, so that you could draw its whole width through a good sized finger ring. It has a rich, lustrous finish and sheen. It falls in beautiful silken folds and will make a gown so handsome that little or no trimming need be added.

In 14 shades—ivory, gray, burgundy, Jap. blue, Copenhagen blue, henna, golden brown, seal brown, four tones of navy blue and plenty of black.

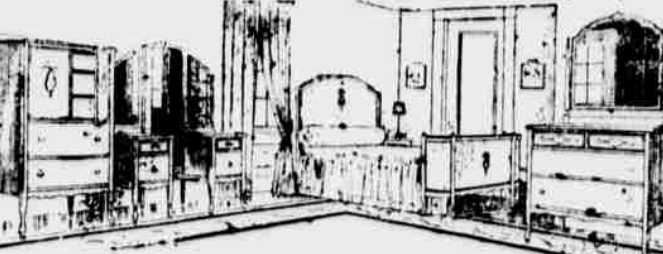

A silk for the critical, careful buyer who usually is not interested in sales because she is looking for permanent values. In this case she may have both.

While they last, these 10,000 yds., $2.50 a yard.
